Gorham, Maine
February 12/1900

My dear Mamma -

We reached here safely to night. It was raining quite hard & the walking was terribly so I was glad to pick up to the Hall.

The "Flying Yankees" was late so that last train had to wait at Cumberland for it to pass so we did not leave until half past five. We did not expect that we would make connections with that first train for Gorham

but that was a little late so we did.

Charles came out to night but very few of the other girls did.

Another ^{one} of the girls here in the Hall has just come down with the German Measles since Saturday night.

Charles brought out a cream pie and we are going to test it after study hours if I can get in there.

We did not get much supper as they did not save any for us.

But I guess that big Washington pie will be enough for three of us. The snow is going off very fast. They brought us up in a covered sleigh and the traveling was so bad that they took us away around through the fields they could not come up over the hill in the street.

Well if you can find out where to go when you get to the bottom of me page you will do well as I begin on the wrong side. Will close with love to all Harriet.
